

Navigating the Rapids of Parenting

By Joey & Carla Link

On the road to adulthood, children encounter several stages and phases of growth that often throw them out of the boat. Learn how to navigate your child & teens through these bumpy times. You will learn where you are headed in your parenting and what you need to do to raise morally mature kids to become obedient, respectful, and responsible adults in today's challenging world.

